Little Mango Tree – Yoga and Holistic Health Centre, 51150 Ron McNeil Line,
Springfield, Ontario, littlemangotree.ca, yoga@littlemangotree.ca, 5196943769

At Little Mango Tree - Yoga and Holistic Health Centre, Yoga is taught as a way of life, honouring its traditional roots. In this training you will receive everything that you need to teach a dynamic yoga class integrating asana, pranayama, mudra, bandha, meditation, and mantra. In addition, you will have the opportunity to do deep self-development through reflection and creating the beginnings of a road map on the nature of the mind and what it means to be balanced. This training is for those who wish to embody the teachings of Yoga and teach from a place of connection and inner truth.

The Main Faculty member is Lalitadevi Tamburri. Lalitadevi has been teaching yoga since 2003. She has a deeply integrated understanding of yoga, the various techniques and tools and an ability to easily teach others how to connect to the more subtle aspects. She is passionate and fully appreciates the healing potential of Yoga.

Julie Boyse (Jaya) assists in this training, along with other YTT graduates. Julie has been teaching yoga and studying intensively with regular visits to India to develop her connection and knowledge since 2016. She is passionate about Yoga and has seen first hand the healing potential of Yoga in her own life.

There are two Guest Teachers:

Dr. Fadel Behman (Holistic Health Institute) Anatomy and Physiology

Melanie Phillips (Madhuri Ayurveda and Yoga) Ayurveda and Self Care

This Integrated 200 hour Yoga Teaching Training will focus on teaching Asanas (Postures), Pranayama (Breath Techniques), Mudra (Psychic Gestures), Bandha (Internal Locks). You will be introduced to various Meditation practices and learn to guide and teach them with confidence. The primary goals of this training are:

1. To confidently teach a yoga class incorporating Asana, pranayama, mudra bandha and meditation, with knowledge of anatomy (physical and energy) contraindications, common health concerns and alternate practices.
2. To have a good grounding in Yoga Philosophy and the meaning of Living Yoga.
3. To begin to connect to the subtle aspects of yoga and develop a curiosity within to continue to learn through practice and self-awareness.
4. Connect to more of what you love and live a happier more Joyful Life...A life that inspires yourself and others!

The training Includes:

-100 contact hours of Asana, Pranayama, Mudra, Bandha teaching, training, methodology and practice.

-20 contact hours of Physical and Energy Anatomy (with Guest Teacher Dr. Fadel Behman)

-20 contact hours in meditation and philosophy

-5 hours in Ethics and Lifestyle

-5 hours in Self Care and Ayurveda and Self Care (with Guest teacher Melanie Phillips)

This 200 hours of yoga training consists of a of 22 contact days in total. There will be two 1 week intensives consisting of 5 days each and 12 Saturdays. Each day is 7.5 hours totalling 165 hours of contact hours. The remaining 35 hours are non-contact hours and you are required to do this on your own time.

These non-contact hours include attending 10 public Yoga Classes and writing commentary on 5 out of 10 of them, Homework, projects, Home Practice, Journalling and Utilizing Tools.

The material will be delivered by Live teaching, handouts and books. The handouts will be given out as needed throughout the training at no additional cost, the books will be an additional cost to the students.
